Lord Derby said the home government are considering the matter It was not advisable to return to the colonial government abolished in 1866, and a quasi govern ment is now existing but could not be permanent. The government had determined to take a new departure in the government of Jamaica, but it would be unwise to declare the details at present.

PARIS, Nov. 8. — Prime Minister Ferry told the department he had no intention of making a proposition to the Chamber of Deputies to send more troops to Tonquin. He is confident of his ability to conduct the campaign successfully with the present force.

BERLIN, Nov. 8.—An aide de camp to the Emperor has gone to Madrid with an autograph letter stating that the Crown Prince, Frederick [illegible], will visit Alfonso. The Crown Prince will reach Genoa about the 15th inst, from which port he will be escorted by three German men-of-war to Spain.

LONDON, Nov. 8.—A large number of bodies are still in the Yorkshire coal mine where the explosion took place yesterday. The friends of the dead crowd the mouth of the pit.

PARIS, Nov. 8.—Clemenceau considering inadequate the Morning News' explanation of the alleged conversation with him has renewed the libel suit. In the Chamber of Deputies the Minister of Marine has asked for a supplementary grant of 11,500,000 francs for military operations in Tonquin.

Offensive operations from Hanephong will probably begin on the 21st inst.

BELGRADE, Nov. 8.—Eighteen members of the Radical Committee here, including Paschitchs, the radical leader in the Skuptschina, have been arrested.

The result of General Nicoli's advance upon the 3000 insurgents at Czrustch is still unknown, but it is believed the insurgents will soon be crushed, as the royalist forces are surrounding them.

ROME, Nov. 8.—Ervington in an interview with Cardinal Jacobini, Papal Secretary of State, and Cardinal Simeoni, expressed the satisfaction of the British Government at the action of the Pope in the affairs of Ireland.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—It is reported that the thirty-seventh division of the Russian army will be mobilized. The men on furloughs have been summoned to return and the contingent of 1877 has been recalled for immediate service.

EASTERN STATES.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—Police this afternoon and to-night arrested twelve members of a thoroughly organized gang of shop lifters. They include the leader, a woman known to the police as Mother Wier, two sons and two daughters. Over $2,000 worth of stolen goods were recovered. It is estimated that the peculiations of the band, nearly all of whom are women, amount to from $10 to $15,000 within the past few months' time. They are all fine looking women, elegantly dressed. The method of operation was for a couple of women to enter a carriage with one of Mother Wier's son's as coachman, and go shopping among the larger stores till the carriage was filled with plunder, when it would be taken to a place of deposit.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.—The Irish national league declares no confidence should be put in the government inquiry into the riots at Londonderry on the occasion of Lord Mayor Dawson's visit there.

A plot has been discovered to tar and feather the lord mayor on Thursday while attending a meeting of the University Philosophical Society at Trinity College.

BELGRADE, Nov. 7. — General Nicoli has captured Calafat, the chief position of the insurgents, taking one hundred prisoners.

EASTERN STATES.

RICHMOND, Nov. 8.—Latest returns increase the democratic gains. Reports from all but two districts give the democrats 23 senators and the coalitionists 15. Reports from both districts not fully reported show heavy democratic gains.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Times: "Full returns from Massachusetts give Robinson a majority of 10,087 over Butler, while Ames has 14,000 for lieutenant governor. Abbott is elected governor of New Jersey by 7,500 majority, and the democrats hold the legislature by five majority on joint ballot. Republicans in New York have obtained eighteen majority in the assembly and four in the senate, but the democrats seem to have secured the minor state offices. A democratic gain in Virginia gives the legislature to that party by a large majority. Reese, representative, is elected supreme court judge in Nebraska by a majority of 10,000. Four-fifths of the members of the Missouri legislature will be democrats.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 8.—A fearful tragedy was enacted to-day at the farm house of Clay McGee, 10 miles south of this city. His children returning from school this afternoon found the lifeless bodies of their father, mother and eldest sister lying upon the floor. McGee had evidently killed his wife, shooting her in the breast with a shotgun, then shot his daughter in the back and completed the horrible tragedy by going to an upper room and swallowing a dose of morphine. The house being isolated the neighbors were not aroused, and the bodies consequently lay until discovered by the children late in the day. McGee is described as a man of violent temper, amounting to almost frenzy at times. He was a prosperous farmer, having come into this vicinity several years ago from Kentucky, where he is said to have once killed a man. There were six children, some of them married.

PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.—William Long, the tobacconist, acknowledges that he is the person who hit General Mahone in the face during the scuffle at the polls on election day. Long explains that being pressed by a crowd he, Long, raised his hand so as to clear himself and get out, as he did so some one struck him violently on the right hand which caused it to strike General Mahone lightly in the face which he hopes did no serious injury.

Senator Mahone was fined $15 for drawing a pistol at the polls. The court room was crowded.

CANADA.

TORONTO, Nov. 7.—Friends of the oarsman Hanlan are not disposed to regard seriously the proposition of Teemer to row Hanlan shis season or early next for $5,000. Hanlan himself has not thought now of arranging contests this year. He intends, however, going to Australia by way of San Francisco, and in his journey across the continent may give a few exhibition races.

MEXICO.

MEXICO, via Galveston, Nov. 8.—A duel took place in Chapultapec this morning between Degheist, of the Mexican National Bank, and Olievier, a French merchant. The latter was killed and Degheist was badly wounded. Swords were used. The trouble was caused over seats at the races Sunday. The British minister, two American ladies and Degheist left seats to promenade. Olievier and two ladies occupied them. A quarrel ensued between Degheist and Olievier; the former called the police and the latter was ejected. The incident caused several challenges to Degheist. He had another duel arranged for to-morrow. Intense excitement exists among foreigners.

THE GREAT SECRET OF BEAUTY lies not in the enamellers or the tonsorial art, but it depends upon good health, a fair, brilliant complexion, rendered so by pure blood. Burdock Blood Bitters purify the blood, cure Scrofula and all diseases of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. 25,000 bottles were sold during the last three months. (22)

A SIMPLE herb found on the sunny plains of a Southern clime has, under the skilful manipulation of Dr. Van Buren, proved one of the greatest blessings ever sent to suffering humanity. Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure is acknowledged all the world over as the only perfect remedy for Kidney troubles. Your druggist has it. dw

PHOSPHATINE is nature's remedy for chronic diseases.
PHOSPHATINE will benefit consumptives in any stage.
PHOSPHATINE cures sleeplessness, nervousness, &c., &c.
PHOSPHATINE does not make fat, but solid flesh.
PHOSPHATINE in female weaknesses is invaluable. For sale by all druggists. dw

D. MCCRIMMON, of Lancaster, writes that he has suffered with inflammatory rheumatism, more or less, from childhood, and had tried nearly all advertised remedies with but temporary effect. Burdock Blood Bitters have radically cured him, and he authorizes us to say so. (19)

DR. COOPER'S VEGETABLE LIVER-WORT AND KIDNEY CURE

Has no equal as a safe remedy for all diseases of the liver, kidneys and urinary organs. Over 250,000 bottles sold during 1882. Price $1 a bottle. MOORE & CO., sole agents. dw

SEEING is believing. Read the testimonials in the pamphlet on Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure, then buy a bottle and relieve yourself of all those distressing pains. Your druggist can tell you all about it. dw

A SURE CURE FOR COMPLAINTS.—Procure from your druggist one 37½ cent bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and use according to directions. It is infallible for Diarrhœa, Cholera Morbus, Canker of the Stomach and Bowels, and Cholera Infantum. (21)

IF you are a professional man, an editor, lawyer, clergyman or doctor, so thoroughly overworwked that now every mental effort is attended with a sense of weariness, followed by headache and more or less severe nervous prostration, take a dose of DR. AUSTIN'S PHOSPHATINE along with your meals for a week or two and we are certain it will relieve you. For sale by all druggists. dw

NEVER undertake a journey without a bottle of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry in your travelling case, to guard against sudden attacks of Colic, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhœa, Sick Stomach, Sea Sickness, and troubles incident to change of climate, water, diet, etc. It is a ready and reliable relief. (23)

OF far more importance than the National Policy or the Irish Question is the question of restoring health when lost. The most suddenly fatal disease incident to this season are the various forms of Bowel Complaint, for all of which Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a specific. (20)

CURTIS'S & HARVEY'S

GUNPOWDER!

INTERNATIONAL

RIFLE MATCH,

GREAT BRITAIN vs. AMERICA.

CREEDMOR (NEAR NEW YORK) SEPT., 1882.

WIMBLEDON, 20TH AND 21ST JULY, 1883.

ON BOTH THESE OCCASIONS THE REPRESENTATIVES of GREAT BRITAIN have proved victorious, and

CURTIS'S & HARVEY

Have much pleasure in directing the especial attention of their friends and customers to the fact that the members of both British Teams

USED THEIR NO. 6 GUNPOWDER SOLELY.

This fact affords distinct proof of the estimation in which this Gunpowder is held, both for regularity and accuracy.

Copy of a letter received by CURTIS'S & HARVEY from Sir Henry St. John Halford, Bart., relative to their No. 6 GUNPOWDER, which was exclusively used by the British Team in the recent match at Wimbledon, between them and the National Guard of America, in which the former were victorious:—

WISTOW, LEICESTER, July 30, 1883.

GENTLEMEN:—The British Team of Volunteers all used your No. 6 Gunpowder in the recent Match between them and the National Guard of America, and I believe some of the American Team also used it, as well as all those shooting with the Match Rifle. It is two old and well-known a brand to require much praise, but I believe it to be unequalled for cleanliness and regularity of manufacture by any other make in the world.

I am, yours faithfully,
H. ST. JOHN HALFORD.

Daily Colonist.

SATURDAY MORNING, NOV. 10TH, 1883.

L. P. FISHER, Advertising Agent, 21 Merchants Exchange, San Francisco, is authorised to receive advertisements for the columns of this paper.

NEWS TELEGRAMS.

THE COLONIST is the only Newspaper Published in British Columbia that receives Telegraphic Dispatches. Its value as an Advertising Medium is therefore apparent.

THE PRINCE OF WALES' BIRTHDAY.

Yesterday being the birthday of the Prince of Wales, the anniversary was marked by a display of bunting through the city, a fitting compliment not only to one of the most useful and popular princes of English history, but also to the President of the Royal Colonial Institute. The Prince was born Nov. 9, 1841, and is now in his 43d year. He was married to the Princess Alexander in 1863, and has now five children. If the Prince is popular, he has certainly earned the distinction, for in consequence of the retirement in a great measure of the Queen from public life, he has had many extra public duties thrown upon him, which otherwise he might have escaped, and perhaps this was just as well, for an heir apparent with nothing to do is not a desirable head for English society, and from the very nature of his position his temptations are considerably aggravated. Happily necessity has forced on the Prince of Wales the role of the "hard working man," and he seems to have realized the force of the argument, and entered into the business heartily, and not only done what he could, but has done it well. Probably no charitable occasion ever appealed to him for his countenance in vain, and no celebration or institution connected with the interests or progress of the masses of the people themselves were ever denied a helping hand in the presence of the Prince, however distant the county or town might be. How numerous and increasing these calls have been was shown in an amusing article in the Times awhile ago. Many stories have been told about the Prince, about his debts, his extravagance, and his admiration for the ladies; these are not, however, unpopular attributes, especially when coupled with more sterling qualities. As to the first counts, it has been always felt that the Prince has been to a certain extent placed in a false position, and his debts would be paid with a far better grace by the English people than some other charges of royalty. In regard to the third count, there is possibly some truth, combined with a great deal of scandal and exaggeration. As a favorable sample of the labors of the Prince in promoting industrial progress, we may note his unceasing interest in the late Fisheries Exhibition, which [illegible] surplus. In his closing address he expressed his gratification at being able to continue the work of his father, and trusted that the buildings might remain as he desired to see a hygienic exhibition in 1884, one of progress of inventions in 1885, and he also proposed holding a great colonial exhibition in 1886. This is certainly rather an extensive programme, and if the Prince only takes a mild interest in each of these exhibitions, in addition to his other multifarious duties, he will not have much time on his hands. These exhibitions are not only interesting and important in themselves, but they cause a vast amount of money to be circulated among the laboring and poorer classes of London, and there is no doubt that many of these have often had cause to echo the words of a well known song—"God Bless the Prince of Wales."

ACTIONS THAT BELIE WORDS.

Will our esteemed morning contemporary permit us to correct a false impression which he has received from a recent article in this paper? We raised no objections to the editor of the Standard buying eleven acres at the head of Fort street. On the contrary we approve of his course and believe and hope he will realize largely from the speculation. But what we do object to—and what we know others object to—are his constant efforts to make people believe that the Settlement Bill will be defeated, for no apparent purpose save to depreciate real estate values in order that he may step in and buy land cheap. Is it probable, if the ex-missionary sincerely believes that the Island railway is a lost cause, that he would be found trafficing for all cheap lots in the market? That he hates the government and the house is not improbable, since they refused to recognize his claim for $12,000 as delegate to England; but hatred of the members who checkmated him is not an excuse for his daily statement that the Island railway is doomed when he shows by his investment that he knows the Settlement Bill will be carried by an overwhelming majority.

THE RAILWAY CANARD.

Among our exclusive dispatches will be found an official denial of the report industriously circulated by the grit organs that work had been discontinued on the Canadian Pacific railway and the Kicking Horse Pass abandoned.

Romance in Real Life.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The papers here have builded a very handsome romance out of a variety of actual facts. One year ago Count Alfred Salmsalm lived in the vicinity of Bonn, and was a student in its famous university. He was a handsome young man, 19 years of age with unlimited resources. His father is Prince Frederick Salmsalm, one of the highest and wealthiest nobles of the German empire, a general in the army and a titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish Prussia. Prince Salmsalm, who was a colonel on the staff of Gen. McClellan during the late war, and at its close entered the service of Maximillian in Mexico as adjutant general and fell in the service of Emperor William at the battle of Gravellotte, in the Franco-Prussian war, was a relative of Count Alfred. Alfred fell in love with a beautiful lady of the city of Bonn. She was also loved by another student, and the rivalry between them became so warm and personal that a duel was the consequence. The Prince forbade all further intercourse between his son and the lady, and publicly announced that he would no longer be responsible for the count's debts. Growing out of this state of affairs the count quitted school and came to America. After the departure of his son the father became penitent and some time having elapsed without any tidings from him the Prince through detectives and the press offered a large sum of money for news concerning him, but none came, and so he was given up for dead. Last week, Carl Schneider, who had been a private in the King's hussars, garrisoned at Bonn, met Count Alfred, both being common laborers on the Illinois Central railroad. He advised the prince by letter, and a trusted messenger, Mr. Von Mallzan, was dispatched from Germany and arrived here a few days ago. The young count was found, his father's forgiveness tendered, his anxiety expressed and the consent of the count obtained to return home immediately. With his old clothes of a railroad laborer he threw away the name of Frederick Reinhart by which he was known, and with a new suit he again assumed his hereditary title—Alfred, Count Salmsalm. He left for New York yesterday and will sail for home at once. To make the story perfect he has remained true to the maiden, and is to marry her, though he relinquishes a portion of his fortune in so doing.

GEORGE WARDEN, the defaulting secretary of the London and River Plate Bank, gave the police notice where he could be found and was arrested on the 9th of last month. He had been on the continent after leaving the directors to find out for themselves how large the deficiency was. He returned to London and was living at his sister's house when he gave himself up. The London press in commenting on the case censures the bank officials for their laxity. The precautions consisted in having two keys to the safe and two to the iron boxes holding the securities. One of these keys was intrusted to the secretary and the other was held by the directors. No explanation has been offered as to how he managed to gain possession of the securities and the system of half-yearly auditing gave Warden just that length of time in which to coin $550,000 in so brief a period. There is another remarkable phase about this defalcation. The directors of the bank are in doubt whether the loss should fall upon the bank or upon the depositors of the securities. A letter of October 4th, addressed to the shareholders states the capital of the bank is intact and that the customary dividend of 4 per cent. will be paid at the usual time. This will be cold comfort to the depositors, and lawsuits will be brought to decide whether the bank cannot be made to make good the losses caused by the dishonesty of one of the bank officials.

Barkerville News.

(Special to The Colonist.)

BARKERVILLE, Nov. 9.

Mining news unimportant. The Barker claim had to shut down as there was too much water, but quit on good pay, making about eighty ounces for the last week. It will soon be at work again.

Last evening a thanksgiving service was held at the English church and a collection taken up for the Royal Cariboo Hospital.

About fifteen inches of snow, but mild for this time of the year.

What Some People Say.

That the Liederkrantz wish to say that the invitation to partake of the hospitality offered them Thursday evening was respectfully declined.

That some one remarked, "They say Mrs. Putman, who has such a lovely husband, can't bear children." "Perhaps if she could she would like them better" replied an old lady disdainfully.

When picked up he was dead, but there was no sign of a bruise on his body.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Hon. A. F. Pemberton.)

FRIDAY, Nov. 9.

Three cases of drunkenness were disposed of.

ASSAULT.

Two Indians, charged with fighting in a public place, both of whom received stabs, were remanded till to-morrow.

UNLAWFUL POSSESSION.

Chas. St. Clair was charged with being in unlawful possession of a quilt belonging to Annie, a halfbreed.

Officer Hough deposed that the house of the woman on View street had been entered whilst she was out of town and certain articles stolen, among them the quilt, which was found in prisoner's possession.

The prisoner said he had bought the quilt from a person who had gone to the Sound.

The case adjourned till to-morrow.

MURDER.

The case of Ah Sue, remanded on the charge of murdering Ah Fook at Cook's Ferry, was continued.

Mr. Wilson prosecuted and Mr. Downey appeared for the defence.

Mr. Wilson said that in spite of the efforts made to procure witnesses in the case they had not been obtained, though the relatives had done everything to find the Indian and the white man who found the body.

Mr. Downey thought the detention of the prisoner was unfair.

The prisoner was remanded till Thursday next.

ASSAULT.

John H. Campbell was charged with assaulting a woman named Ellen in Mr. Hart's store on Johnson street.

Mr. Hart stated he saw defendant with his hand on plaintiff's throat, and he threw her in the doorway, and called on him to let her go, and he laughed and went away. The woman said she had been kicked.

The defendant stated that when he saw the woman at Mr. Hart's she slapped his face and called him a bad name, when he pushed her away and she had hold of his sleeve with her teeth.

Mr. Isaacs corroborated the evidence as to the assault.

His honor fined the defendant $20 or two months' imprisonment.

THE LICENSE CASE.

The case of Richard Glenn, charged with selling liquor without a license, was continued.

Mr. Downey prosecuted.

Mr. Glenn, in the absence of his counsel, Mr. Theo. Davie, asked for an adjournment.

Sergt. Flewin stated defendant was still selling liquor.

His honor said he must fine him $150.

Death of Mr. James W. Douglas.

A telegram was received by Dr. Helmcken of this city, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, announcing the death at the Baldwin Hotel, San Francisco, of Mr. James W. Douglas of Victoria, son of the late Sir James Douglas. The immediate cause of death was Bright's disease, although the deceased had long been delicate in health. Nearly two months ago he was returning with his wife and children from a visit to Germany, and had reached San Francisco en route to this city, but appearing to be extremely fatigued from his long journey, it was not deemed advisable to continue further until he had recuperated. This, however, he never did, but took to his bed and continued to get gradually weaker until the 7th inst., when he sank more rapidly and finally expired on that date. The deceased was the eldest and only surviving son of Sir James Douglas, the greatest and most popular governor of the old colony, whose rule extended over a period of 13 years, from 1851 to 1864. The remains of the deceased, who was about 32 years old, will be brought up on the next steamer for interment. Lady Douglas and three sisters survive Mr. Douglas, who also leaves a young wife and two children to mourn his early demise.

The Electric Light.

The first of the four masts for the electric light has now been erected at the junction of Blanchard and Chatham streets, or rather the lower part of it, which is about 80 or 85 feet high. A few feet from the top are the cross trees, supporting a slight circular platform or main top, and from this point descend the guys. The second mast which is 60 feet long is now being reduced in its proportions, as it was thought to be too heavy, and will be hoisted as soon as ready through the cross trees by a block and tackle in the usual way. The appearance of the mast at present is that of a gigantic railway signal. The elevated nature of the locality and its freedom from building of any height will afford a very fair test of the capabilities of the light for covering a large area under the most favorable circumstances. The erection of the masts is in charge of Capt. Harman who making preparations for the erection of a second mast on Church Hill.

PERSONAL.—A. W. Arnold, Esq., representing the passenger department of the Northern Pacific Railway; Chas. Kennedy, Esq., general passenger agent for the great Rock Island railway, and Robert Irving, Esq., the popular purser of the G. E. Starr, were among the editor's callers yesterday. Messrs. Arnold and Kennedy came over in the interest of the corporations which they represent and as they have offices at Portland, British Columbians who contemplate making the transcontinental trip should not fail to call on them.

N. P. RAILWAY TICKETS.—It will be seen from a notice in our advertising columns that through tickets from Victoria to Eastern points via the Northern Pacific railway may be bought of the pursers of the O. R. & N. Co.'s steamers, which leave Victoria daily. This will prove a great public convenience.

FIRE AT SEATTLE.—At 12:15 yesterday morning Sorah's malt house on Mill street took fire and was totally burned. The court house building and gaol, adjoining, were also partly consumed; but the records, furniture and prisoners were run out in time and saved. The loss is about $6000.

HORSE RACING.—It was intended to have some horse races on Beacon Hill yesterday afternoon, but on account of the weather they were put off till 2 o'clock to-day, when some local equines are expected to run.

HORSE RACES.—In consequence of the inclement state of the weather there were no races yesterday, either at the Driving Park or at Beacon Hill.

HOLIDAY BOOKS.—Major Downie is agent in British Columbia for many choice new works suitable for holiday gifts. *

County Court.

(Before Sir M. B. Begbie, C. J.)

Yesterday the County Court was opened at 11 o'clock, Sir Mathew B. Begbie, C. J., presiding.

Turner vs. Heathorn.—This was a claim brought by plaintiff, an Indian, against W. Heathorn, for the payment of $140, money he alleged as due him by defendant in lieu of J. M. Nelson, (defaulted.)

Messrs. Davie and Walls for plaintiff; Mr. E. Johnson for the defence.

The case was a test one, the plaintiff being one of a number of Indians who had been employed during the past summer by J. M. Nelson, who was under contract to Mr. Heathorn to supply him with a large quantity of hemlock bark. Failing to secure payment of his wages from Nelson who had left the province, the plaintiff now brought the present action against against defendant and prayed for a payment.

Mr. E. Johnson on behalf of Mr. Heathorn distinctly denied any liability for payment of wages to defendant, who had been employed by J. M. Nelson alone, and who only was responsible in the matter. The defendant had had a written contract with Nelson, legally drawn and signed, and the only thing that might possibly be misconstrued on the part of the plaintiff and others was the he (defendant) had promised to honor any order for wages that Nelson might make upon him, and which moreover he had done. The promise also was only verbal.

His lordship said that it was evident from the facts adduced that the defendant had paid the money once, that he had paid it agreeably to a contract with Nelson, and no verbal contract made after a written one was in existence was binding. He would reserve his judgment.

Court then adjourned till Monday at 10 a. m.

London Theatre.

There was a full house last night at the London Theatre, when the play of Black-Eyed Susan and a laughable farce were given for the benefit of Mr. A. D. Arnold, one of the managers, who had, we are glad to say, recovered sufficiently to be able to witness the performance. Preceding the above the Heeley Bros. and the charming Miss Moulton again delighted their audience with their specialties. Black-Eyed Susan was decidedly a success, the noble sentiments and well chosen words of William (Mr. F. Cleaves) in his own defence at the court-martial being delivered with an intensity and vigor that proclaimed the high order of that actor's histrionic abilities. Miss May DeLome as Susan and Miss Fanny Wood as Dolly both did exceedingly well. Matrimonial Difficulties closed the evening's entertainment with Holmes Grover as Lollypop—a negro servant—keeping the audience in convulsions of laughter and proving himself a most versatile artist. To-night will be given the Boy Detective.

Resolutions of the Woman's Christian Temporance Union.

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to take to himself our most beloved president, the late Mrs. R. H. Smith, and whereas, her very efficient administration among us, her exemplary Christian character and earnest zeal for "God, and home and native land" had greatly endeared her to our hearts, and though deeply moved we bow submissively to the divine will, feeling assured that our irreparable loss is her gain,

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved family thus suddenly called to part from a loving, affectionate wife and mother, earnestly hoping that their hearts may be comforted with the blessed assurance that in that land of light and glory, with loved ones gone before, she awaits their coming,

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the afflicted husband, and also to the press for publication.

The Nanaimo Strike Over.

The Nanaimo strike is practically at an end. The mines are rapidly filling with new men and many of the old hands have gone back.

JUST THINK OF IT.—That on the 21st day of last month a Winnipeg bar keeper having taken on board a cargo of his own tanglefoot lay down on the sidewalk and went to sleep. The police found him an hour or two afterwards with his hands, feet, face and vitals frozen and packed him off to the hospital where he died next day.

FROM THE WEST COAST.—The schooner Triumph, Capt. Douglas, arrived yesterday at noon from the west coast with Mr. Stevenson and a party of men who have been prospecting for lumber.

THE REV. R. H. SMITH.—The condition of this gentleman last evening was much the same as previously reported, and a faint hope was entertained of his recovery.

THE WRONG NAME.—In publishing the result of the horse race at the Driving Park on Thursday we spoke of Larry O'Brien as having come in second in each heat. It should have been Chinaman, otherwise Mustang Bill.

POLITICAL SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CROWN PRINCE'S VISIT.

THE WAR IN TONQUIN.

China Getting Ready for the Worst.

EUROPE.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—A large number of bodies are still in the Lancashire coal mine in which the explosion took place yesterday. Friends of the dead crowd around the mouth of the pit. Forty men were killed and two or three will die. Twenty-one were wounded, many seriously. The cause of the accident is somewhat uncertain; but the most plausible theory is that the heavy dillars supporting the roof of the second story of the balcony sank into the plank on which they rested thus forcing the wall outwards which in time caused the roof of the entire wing to cave in. These columns were made of large pieces of boiler iron rolled into circular form stove pipe fashion, the joints not being bolted together.

DUBLIN, Nov. 9.—In consequence of the Parnell campaign in Ulster it is proposed to form a constitutional organization apart from orangeism. The object is to unite Catholics and Protestants in support of the law and promotion of loyalty and to oppose disintegrators, home rulers and household suffragists.

LISBON, Nov. 9.—The Portugese forces have occupied Cardina on the North Congo.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—China's note to Marquis Tzing, it is said, alludes to a profer of mediation by a power friendly to both (supposed to be the United States) which was rejected by France.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—Dr. Harmand, now in Hue, says the Emperor is very friendly to the French, but the Mandarins are hostile.

BERLIN, Nov. 9. The proposed visit of the Crown Prince to Spain has created a great sensation here. There are misgivings that France will perceive in the visit a fresh element of irritation.

MADRID, Nov. 9.—The king and council decided that great festivities and military parades will be held during the Crown Prince of Germany's visit.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 9.—The council of the empire has sanctioned the Russo-American scheme for the erection of grain elevators and storehouses throughout the empire.

CANADA.

TORONTO, Nov. 9.—General Manager Van Horne of the Canadian Pacific Railroad who revived here to-day says there has been no suspension of work on the Rocky Mountain section except what has been absolutely necessary. Work could not be easily continued through the mountain in winter owing to snow slides; but will be pushed in the spring and the whole line to the Pacific coast will be finished in 1885 as bargained. If it was necessary to push work through the Rocky Mountains during the winter they could do so; but there was no hurry and there had been no disagreement among the engineers as to the practicability of Kicking Horse Pass.

CHINA.

HONGKONG, Nov. 9.—Admiral Courbet has decided to postpone his advance upon Bacninh where the Chinese garrison are preparing for a desperate resistance. He proposes to wait until the rice crop is gathered and the roads, still sodden from inundations, have become sufficiently hard for the transport of heavy cannon which he intends to use in the siege. The march will begin during the first week in December when the Chinese government will have made up its mind whether it will assist the garrison or leave it to its fate.

Dr. Harmand, French civil commissioner, leaves for France by the first mail steamer. His removal from the command is regarded as doing away with the only obstacle to a successful campaign. Since he was superseded there has been perfect accord between the naval and military forces, and their jealousies have entirely disappeared.

From Chinese sources it is learned that General Fang, a distinguished Chinese officer, is coming from the north to take command in the south. He has won an excellent reputation for putting down rebellions and has the confidence of the war party. The troops which he will command are now gathered in large numbers on the Tonquin frontier. Throughout the empire military preparations are being actively pushed forward and all the arsenals are busy. Many regiments which have been stationed in the northern districts are marching towards the south. The authorities are making efforts to counteract the effects of recent French reinforcements.

SAIGON, Nov. 9. Offensive operations from Hai Phong will probably begin on the 21st inst.

SECOND DISPATCH.

BLOODY WORK IN PERU.

Visit of the Crown Prince to Spain.

THE LORD MAYOR'S PROCESSION.

SIGNIFICANT SPEECH OF LORD COLERIDGE.

Hot Work Expected in Jamaica.

SOUTH AMERICA.

LIMA, Nov. 9.—After the revolt of Montero's troops at Arequipa Colonel Raygado attacked the mutineers, and the populace killed seventy, including the mayor of the city. Gen. Canavors was killed by his own troops. The whole Chilian expeditionary force is in Arequipa. The Bolivian army is concentrated near Aurs. Montero is in Bolivia treating for peace with Chili.

EUROPE.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—Journals warmly approve of the visit of the Crown Prince to Alphonso. The Zeitung says the friendship of Germany and Spain receives a fresh guarantee that Spain is determined to join Germany's peaceful policy. The journey of the Crown Prince to Madrid will furnish an additional pledge to Germany that she will throw her influence in favor of making France the only power that shall cherish proclivities for revenge and also in favor of maintenance of the world's peace.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The procession in the lord mayor's show passed off without disturbance. It was a mile long. In Cornhill, which was elaborately decorated, a grand stand was erected on which the lord mayor received an address from the common council. The procession, especially trophies exhibiting the commercial products of Canada, Australia and India, together with exhibits from the international fisheries exhibition, including Grace Darling's boat, excited great enthusiasm. The street was packed with spectators. Along the route the lord mayor was received with mingled cheers and hisses. Previous to administering the oath of office, Chief Justice Coleridge delivered a somewhat long speech, in which he observed that all previous civic pageants had been connected with a hall at Westminster, which was now destroyed. Lord Mayor Fowler was received to-day in a building which at present had no history whatever. A change might occur in political affairs and the authorities must submit to the genius of the times by becoming in accord with the spirit of the age, for it was only by conforming itself to the high intelligence of the people that any institution could flourish.

Parliament is prorogued till December 19th.

WEST INDIES.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Nov. 9. Political agitation had again broken out. There was a procession yesterday and the streets were densely thronged. A public meeting was afterwards held in the city hall and resolutions passed expressing disappointment that no reply had been received from the Queen to the representations of the people of Jamaica and alarm that a new governor had been appointed without any assurances from the Queen's ministers that the grievances of the people will be redressed, their wrongs removed. It was also resolved that there shall be no taxation without representation, if there was that the colony would refuse to pay taxes and would offer passive resistance, leaving the government to collect taxes at the point of the bayonet.

THIRD DISPATCH.

THE LORD MAYOR'S BANQUET.

ENGLAND AND FRANCE PASS THE LOVING CUP.

THE LUTHERAN CELEBRATION.

French Forces in Tonquin.

EUROPE.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The Temps says that during a recent skirmish at Bacninh a Japanese officer accompanying the French saw the banners of Chinese regulars among the troops accompanying Bacninh.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—The Lord Mayor's banquet this evening was attended by many distinguished persons. Waddington, French ambassador, replying to the toast in honor of the foreign ministers said there was no greater guarantee of peace than the hearty, cordial, loyal friendship of Great Britain and France. France had made great progress and he had every confidence in her. The future policy of the French was not one of aggression but of holding her own. France wished to approach Great Britain in a spirit of good will and he met the same desire on the part of England. (Cheers.)

The master of rolls responded to the toast "Honor Her Majesty," and referred to the recent visit of Lord Coleridge to America, and said the law administered in England and America was the most merciful, the most generous and the most just ever administered.

Gladstone, in reply to the toast in "Honor of Her Majesty's Ministers," said our heartiest and best wishes are with France in her career of peace, justice and orderly government. Referring to Missionary Shaw's affair he said what came from the French government had been conferred rather than demanded. He believed the incident tended to confirm the good feeling between the two countries. Gladstone said orders had been given for the withdrawal of a portion of the British forces from Egypt, and that the withdrawal would include the evacuation of Cario. All the great powers in Europe had declared their attachment for the cause of peace. With regard to Ireland he said there is much to be lamented, but there is also much to be hoped for. Peace and order must be firmly maintained. (Cheers.)

Count DeLesseps, replying to the toast of "Our Foreign Guest" expressed the conviction that in his approaching interview with the merchants and shipowners on the Suez canal question he would be met in a spirit of fair play.

ERSLEBEN, Nov. 9.—Protestants, Catholics and Jews united to render effective the Lutheran celebration which began today. The houses throughout the town are decorated. Thousands of people visited the house where Luther died.

PARIS, Nov. 9.—The preamble of the Tonquin credit bill states that the total French army in Tonquin at the beginning of November was 8650 men, and the French naval force in Tonquin and the China seas numbers 23 vessels and 4500 men.

PESTH, Nov. 9.—Lutheran services are to be held in most Protestant churches in Hungaria on Sunday.

VIENNA, Nov. 9.—Lutheran festival inaugurated to-day.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—The North German Gazette says: So far from the Crown Prince's proposed visit to Spain being aimed against France, it will be made in the interest of peace, as was that of King Alfonso's visit to Hamburg.

EASTERN STATES.

BUFFALO, Nov. 9.—A gale this afternoon blew down a four story building. Twelve men were buried in the ruins; five killed and seven injured.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 9.—North Pacific coast: Light rains; California, generally fair weather.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—At a panic caused by a false alarm of fire as the audience was leaving the Twenth third street theatre last night, many were bruised, but none seriously injured.

THE SHARON-HILL CASE.

An Indignant Millionaire.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—In the Sharon-Hill case to-day Miss Hill absolutely refused to give up possession of the alleged marriage contract until informed by the judge that unless she did it would be ruled out of evidence and considered as so much waste paper. Her counsel, Mr. Tyler, endeavored to persuade her that she need have no fear, as it would remain in the custody of the court,

Miss Hill—"Mr. Sharon knows all about it."

Mr. Sharon—"I tell the court that is the damnedest lie ever uttered."

Miss Hill—"As your honor order it; I will deliver it and hold you, judge, responsible for my document."

The paper was then delivered, but the judge refused to assume any responsibility stating that it would have to be delivered into court in the ordinary way. In order to identify it the judge put his initials, "J. F. J.," on it. When the document was shown to Sharon he denounced it as a forgery in such indignant terms that the judge ordered him to be removed from court. An animated scene followed in which counsel and all present took part, and which was only terminated by an order of court to adjourn. The document will remain in possession of the clerk of the court until large photographs of it are taken.

The Engagement Ring.

About the happiest day in the life of a young lady is the day upon which she receives an engagement ring. She will hold her hand up and look at the ring from all points and admire it, and assure Adolphus that he is just too awfully nice for anything for giving it to her. And she always wears it that day, no matter what happens. If the ring is too large for her she will ram bits of wood under it, just as the boy puts branches of trees and other things under his skate straps to keep his skate on. And, after she gets it fixed to suit her, she starts out to call on her friends. They all know before she arrives that she has received a ring, and are on the qui vive. They either tell her it is very pretty or else they pretend not to notice it at all, in either of which cases the recipient of the ring is delighted beyond description. Because if they compliment her she thinks that they are affecting an indifference to her good luck that they do not feel, and that they will tear her to pieces after her departure. And if they don't say a word or notice the ring the young lady knows that they are wild with envy, and would give their eyes to be in her place. And she is glad to know that she has destroyed their happiness. And she calls on every one she knows, and removes her gloves at every house, even if she remains therein but ten minutes.

GREAT excitement has been caused in Liverpool by some revelations of alleged wholesale poisonings by a woman named Catherine Flanagan. The woman carried on a money lending business and was in the habit of insuring some of her victims. Within the past two years fifteen of the persons whom she insured have died and she has recovered the money from the companies. Although the neighbors have often been suspicious no steps were taken to stop Mrs. Flanagan's career until quite recently, when Patrick Higgins, a shoemaker, interposed to prevent the burial of his brother. Higgins made the statement that on the 2d of October he learned that his brother had died, and his suspicions were aroused because he had heard people say that Mrs. Flanagan had placed so many persons in clubs, and when they died received a large amount of club money for them. Upon further inquiry he learned that she had some medicines that she gave to any one that was ill and whom she had insured and whose different policies she held. He then went to several club (life insurance) offices and found that Catherine Flanagan held policies on the life of his brother in at least six companies, aggregating about $800. Another case was that of a man named Patrick Jennings, who lodged with his daughter at the house of Catherine Flanagan. She insured the daughter, who shortly afterwards died, and she obtained the insurance money. Traces of poison were found in the stomach of the deceased. Mrs. Higgins, the wife of the deceased man, has been formally remanded, but Mrs. Flanagan has not yet been found. It is understood that the home secretary has authorized the exhumation of some of the bodies of those suspected to have been poisoned.

AN extraordinary offense under the licensing laws was investigated a short time ago before the borough magistrates at Derby. The landlady of the White Swan was summoned for keeping her house open during restricted hours on a Sunday. It was proved that on the morning in question, about 11.20 o'clock, the sexton at St. Peter's Church, which is situated immediately opposite the White Swan, was seen to come out of the inn with something bulky under his coat. A policeman interrogated him, when the sexton remarked that he had "only been for some wine for the communion service," which he had forgotten to buy on the previous day, and he had just been for it then. The officer took the sexton back to the public house, when the landlady admitted that she had sold the sexton a bottle of wine for 5 shillings. He had not paid for it, but the vicar would do so. In reply to questions the landlady said she had done the same thing before and would do it again. On leaving the public house the policeman told the landlady that he should report her for keeping her house open during prohibition hours and she then told him to "report away," that she was not afraid; she should see the vicar. The magistrate having remarked upon the painful character of the case, characterized the whole affair as most undignified and improper. Defendant was fined 5 shillings and costs and the sexton, who was subsequently summoned for being found on licensed premises, was convicted in a penalty of 1 shilling, without costs.

LOSING CONFIDENCE.—A San Francisco dispatch says: Strangely enough no answer has been received to the dispatch sent to representatives of the Northern Pacific inquiring as to the attitude of the road on the question of competion for California trade. There is a growing suspicion among the merchants that the stand taken by the road shortly after adjournment of the conference held at San Francisco has changed considerably. In a number of cases they are dsposed to lose confidence in the promise of speedy relief, and are beginning to look to a renewal of special contracts. Others are content to wait for an official statement showing exactly the position assumed by the Northern Pacific before taking any action.

The Errand.

What she said at Home:
"The color of your mustache," said she,
"Is just the same shade as my hair!
So please go down to the store for me
And purchase a net for me there."

What the shop girl said:
"You wanted a net like your mustache?
Oh! yes. Your idea I get."
And then to the window she went with a dash—
And brought—an incisible net.

The Irishman's Ruse.

The excitement and crush during Garrick's last performance are matters of theatrical history. That most entertaining of memoir writers, Reynold's, who was presen the last night, relates an amusing incident:

Though a side box, close to where I sat, was completely filled, we behold the door burst open, and an Irish gentleman attempt to enter vi et armis.

"Shut the door, box keeper!" loudly cried one of the party.

"There's room, by the powers!" cried the Irishman, and persisted in advancing.

On this a gentleman in the second row rose and exclaimed, "Turn out that blackguard."

"Oh, and is that your mode, honey?" coolly retorted the Irishman. "Come, come out, my dear, and give me satisfaction, or I'll pull your nose, faith, you coward, and shillelah you through the lobby!"

This public insult left the tenant in possession no alternative; so he rushed out to accept the challenge; when, to the pit's general amusement, the Irishman jumped into his place, and, having deliberately seated and adjusted himself, he turned round and cried, "I'll talk to you after the play is over."
